These students went above and beyond to take two of our grade nine students under their wing during the trip to Italy. They always made sure they had someone to hang out with, room with, etc. They made sure they were always included and they looked out for one another. Thank you girls!

Simon Bourgeois

You were AWESOME on the Italy trip! We could see how much you loved the overall travel experience. You took everything in and truly enjoyed every minute of every day.

SPECIAL SHOUT OUT:

To all students who wrote the literacy test on March 27th.

We had 100% attendance success rate and all students took the task seriously.

We thank every other student for their patience and regard to keeping the building in 'silent mode' the day of the test.
